I think she wants the impact on the tribes to be taken into account, but I don't know if she understands how some of the programs work.

It's not on the agenda. She's never spoken to me about this directly, just participated in a few of the calls. I wish she would have spoken to us first, or at least told us she was going to talk about this so we weren't caught totally off guard...

Have you heard anything from Michelle about what she's talking about? She hasn't talked to me at all and I didn't know she was talking about this today.....
